

BaPDA

Bahrain Property Development Association

Benefits of being a BaPDA member

- Improving the business environment for property developers,
- Promoting public policies that make it easier to do business,
- Corresponding with government to identify issues of mutual concern and jointly address them,
- Act like a bridge between government bodies and the members of the association,
- Contributing to excellence in building through the promotion of world-class ethical standards and educational programs,
- Provide training in the Real Estate and construction fields,
- Introduce and promote an industry code of ethics to improve the capacity and image of property developers in Bahrain,
- Arrange gathering with other developers in the region to discuss and exchanges ideas and thoughts,
- Extraordinary meetings to advice members who face problem on projects. Help them and exchange ideas,
- Providing forums where developers network and exchange ideas as well as information,
- Linking developers to new financing, marketing and project management opportunities,
- Providing events where property developers can share expertise and build business contacts,
- Organizing talk on Real Estate development and construction matters,
- Forging relationships between industry partners for positive collaboration,
- Harmonizing development activities with other associations, like Real Estate associations and environmental preservation groups,
- Get to exchange experience with property developers and other members,
- Made aware of the latest laws, regulations and new released decisions by government bodies in order to give feedbacks and suggestions,
- Compiling focused research and analysis to inform investment decisions, policy analysis and public education,
- Enjoy special discounts on exhibitions and trade shows,
- Enjoy Discounts on Business clubs entry fee in Bahrain,
- Extra PR coverage in the region,
- Mention of members in BAPDA website,